I acknowledge that the library card can only be used by the cardholder and not by anyone else. I will pay compensation for a lost library card and for any lost or damaged books. I will inform the library at once should there be a change in address or e-mail. The date of birth is used as an initial password which I can change later. My signature provides consent that the above data be stored for proper use in the lending system and will be processed and used for user-related notifications (e.g. reminders) of the library.

Note on data protection re newsletter:

I give my consent to receive the (approx.) monthly library newsletter. The consent to receive the newsletter can be revoked with effect for the future at the following e-mail address:
